SUPPLEMENTAL PETITION DECISION RESPONSE

Dear Sir:

In further response to the Decision on Petition Under 37 CFR 1.47(a), the undersigned provides the attached copy of the signed Declaration and Power of Attorney of inventor, Gerardus Antonius Schellekens. It is noted that the Declaration has been witnessed and ribboned as a single document including the Assignment of Invention Rights. The original ribboned document will be filed of record in the referenced application with a response to the pending office action. A copy of the ribboned document has been forwarded to the Assignment Branch for recording.

By way of further response, Applicants state that when the application was filed in 1999, a dispute then existed between the inventor Schellekens and the remaining inventors and the assignees, as shown in the declaration submitted by Dr. van Venrooij in 1999. While the decision on Petition in 2003 indicates a more recent correspondence address for inventor Schellekens, there is no suggestion that the address given in 1999 was then erroneous. Indeed, the declaration states that the declarant, Dr. van Venrooij personally contacted inventor Schellekens, and personally asked him to sign. He caused a letter to be delivered; further proof exists by way of Dr. van Venrooij's testimony that the documents were returned unsigned together with a letter from inventor Schellekens indicating "an absolute refusal to sign." This is more than sufficient proof to establish all the requirements of 37 CFR § 1.47(a).

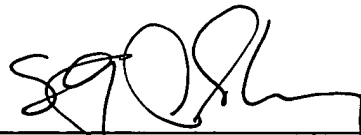

In any event, as a result of a judicial proceeding in the Netherlands, inventor Schellekens has now executed the Declaration for Patent Application. Thus, given this resolution, the issue raised by the sua sponte reconsideration of the Notice of Acceptance is now moot. Accordingly, applicants submit that the Decision on Petition should be withdrawn, the Declaration for Patent Application accepted, and the case allowed to continue in prosecution.

A Petition for Extension of Time accompanies this response. The fee for a one-month extension of time and any other fees deemed appropriate are authorized for deduction from Deposit Account No. 13-4213.

Respectfully submitted,
